Committee Composition

Mr. Robert Wheeler (Political Science major) has replaced Mr. William Mathews as the student committee member. Mr. Mathews graduated.

Campus Input

The committee has had informal sessions with President Graves, Dr. Dowdle, Dr. J. Wilson, Dean Horner, Dean Hoomani and Dean Rogers. Each of these individuals addressed themselves to the question "What prerequisites do you view as necessary for the Academic Vice Presidential position?" Dean Crossland will also address the committee.

Committee Progress (6-23-75).

The committee has narrowed the approximately 160 applicant field to eight semi-final candidates. These candidates are (alphabetically):

1. Warren B. Armstrong. Ph.D. History, Michigan. 42 years old. Presently, Dean, School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, St. Cloud State College, Minnesota. Formerly, Associate Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Wisconsin-Whitewater.

2. Leon Boothe. Ph.D. History, University of Illinois. 37 years old. Presently, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia. Formerly, Dean of College, George Mason University.

3. Leslie C. Campbell. Ph.D. History, Mississippi. 43 years old. Presently, Associate Dean, School of Arts and Sciences, Auburn. Formerly, Chairman of the Division of Social Studies, Arkansas College.

4. William K. Easley, Ph.D. Chemistry, Georgetown. 54 years old. Presently, Academic Vice President, Marshall University, Huntington, West Virginia. Formerly, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina.

6. Charles M. Evans. Ph.D. Political Science, Oklahoma. 35 years old. Presently, Acting Vice President for Academic Affairs and Executive Dean for Graduate Studies, State University College of Arts and Sciences, Plattsburgh, New York (temporary one year appointment). Dr. Evans is on leave from Central Administration of State University of New York where he is Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education.

The Search Committee will interview the eight semi-final candidates in Atlanta on the weekend of July 19 and 20. The first interview will be short (approximately 2 hours), formal and very direct. From compared responses to the same questions the field will be narrowed to 3 or 4 finalists. The finalists will be brought on campus in August for 2-3 day extensive interviews. The final interviews will involve many segments of the University community.

Semi-Final Dossiers

The dossiers that have been accumulated on the eight semi-final candidates are available for University community personnel in the President's Office. The eight finalists have given the Search Committee approval to seek all information necessary to make a decision. The Search Committee welcomes information on the above candidates.
