CONTRIBUTORS

HARVIE P. JONES is a partner in the architectural firm of Jones & Herren of Huntsville. He has been interested in historic preservation for many years and is a member of a number of preservation organizations. He has been a member of the Board of the Society for a number of years.

ELEANOR HUTCHENS is a native of Huntsville, who graduated from Huntsville High School before receiving her master's and the doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania. She taught English literature at Agnes Scott College and the University of Alabama in Huntsville. She is Emerita Professor of English at UAH and the author of two books.

MARSHA KASS MARKS, Associate Professor of History at Alabama A&M University, is a former secretary of the Society. Her historical interests center on life in the South and on popular culture themes.
