RE: Mystery Photo on page 90 of Spring-Summer 1992 Quarterly

Dear Ms. Elise H. Stephens:

In reference to the above, I believe this photo depicts the St. Bartley Primitive Baptist Church which is located at 500 Gallatin Street, Huntsville, Alabama. You may recall that Williams Avenue running in a westerly direction dead-ended into Gallatin Street prior to the time that Williams was extended (through the lot of which this church was located) and then down by the Big Springs Park in front of the Hilton Hotel. My best memory is that Williams was extended westerly sometime in the 1970.

I have attached a copy of the Spine of the 1964 Huntsville City Directory for identification and also page 88 which indicates that this church was located at the intersection of Williams Avenue and 500 Gallatin.

Sincerely,

MORRIS, SMITH, CLOUD, FEES AND CONCHIN, P.C.
