Letter to the Editor

April 13, 1997

To Whom It May Concern:

This is in response to the newspaper article asking for anecdotes of the Harrison Brothers. I hope it is not too late. We moved here in 1965, because my husband was to become one of the new faculty at UAH. The barn on Cruse Alley had been renovated for our arrival. I walked down to buy a mailbox to put out front. One of the Harrison brothers waited on me. I paid for it and picked it up to go, but Mr. Harrison gently took it from me and said, "Where is your car Ma'am?" On being told I walked down to the store, he said, "No lady is ever going out of this store carrying something like this. I will deliver it myself." And he did after the store closed that evening. I don't know what he thought about people who lived in a barn. After a few happy months there, we bought a house and sublet to the young artist, David Parrish and his wife, who lived there quite some years.

Sincerely,

Virginia D. Lavender
